

AMBROSE A. CALL STATE PARK

2007 Call Park Rd, Algona, IA 50511

Ambrose A. Call State Park is a 135-acre "oasis" of rugged hills, heavily wooded with virgin timber, in an area of gently rolling farmland. The park is located near the east fork of the Des Moines River. Ambrose Call and his brother, Asa, were early settlers in the area who carved their claim, the first in Kossuth County, on a walnut tree at the present site of the park. The brothers spent their first night in Kossuth County on July 9, 1854. The next day, while Asa went for his wife and supplies, Ambrose and a traveling companion began work on a cabin in what is now the state park. Ambrose A. Call State Park was dedicated in 1929.

PARK AMENITIES/POINTS OF INTEREST/THINGS TO DO

Ambrose A. Call has a beautiful lodge that can be reserved for weddings, family or class reunions, graduation receptions, birthdays or other gatherings. The lodge was built by the Works Progress Administration in 1928 and was renovated in 1998.

The authentic log cabin found in the park is constructed of elm logs, some exceeding 18 inches in diameter, which is typical of cabins built by the original settlers in the area. Four men were needed to put the logs in place. The cabin in the park is located in the approximate location of the first log cabin in Kossuth County. It was moved from a local homestead to the park.

The non-modern campground has several campsites, most with electric hook-ups. All camping is first-come, first-serve.

The rugged and heavily wooded park offers more than a mile of trails that wind through the forest, down a ravine and along a picturesque winding creek. Many species of shrubs, flowers and trees can be found at A.A. Call. A cross-country ski trail is available in the winter.

Winter activities include cross country-skiing, snowshoeing and hiking.

The 18-hole Frisbee golf course is challenging and heavily used by avid players.
