Form Instructions

1. How to get the coordinates of a place?
On your computer, open Google Maps. Right-click the place or area on the map. Select What's here? At the bottom, you will see a card with the coordinates.
2. Only report a total amount of biosolids applied to a particular field in one year.
3. Biosolids field identification number can be found from EPA's biosolids report for each city. It is different from the Iowa NPDES number. It starts with "IAL" followed by 6 numerical numbers.
4. Submit the DNR Biosolids Land Application Field Information Form to ia-biosolids-annual-report@dnr.iowa.gov before the annual biosolids reporting deadline, which is Feb 19 each year.
5. Please contact Martin Jacobs at Martin.Jacobs@dnr.iowa.gov or 515-725-8419 if you have questions for biosolids land application.
